

Music Library + Digital Library +
Electronic Composition Faculty +
Vibrant Sound Art Community

=

Lisa Hooper
(lhooper1@tulane.edu)
Jeff Rubin
(jrubin6@tulane.edu)

Daily pilgrimage...

Chance(ish) encounters with the very outgoing Philippe Landry.

A musical city with so much more than just jazz.

PROS PECT

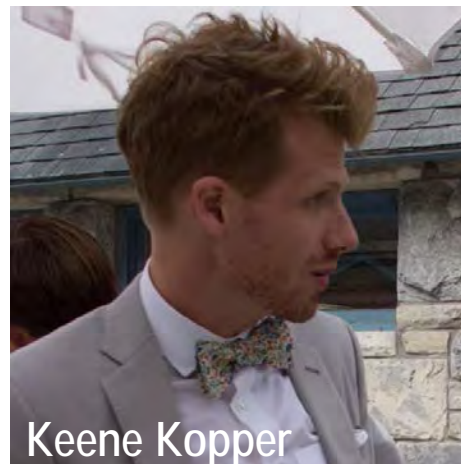

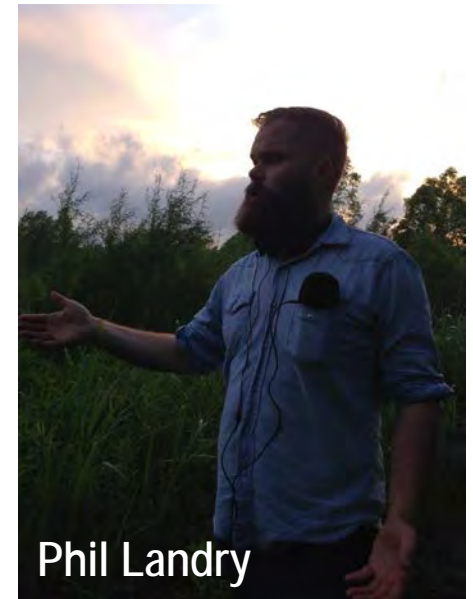

NEW ORLEANS

“...conceived in the tradition of the great international exhibitions, such as the Venice Biennale and the Bienal de Sao Paulo, to showcase new artistic practices from around the world in settings that are both historic and culturally exceptional, and contribute to the cultural economy of New Orleans and the Louisiana Gulf region.”

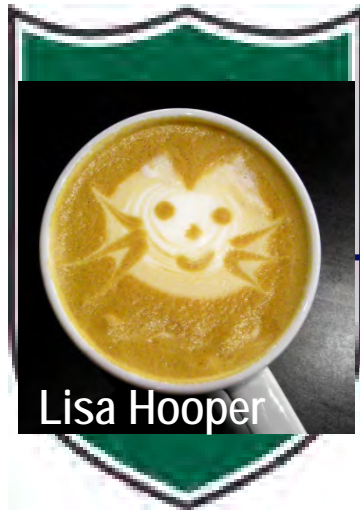

Project Players:

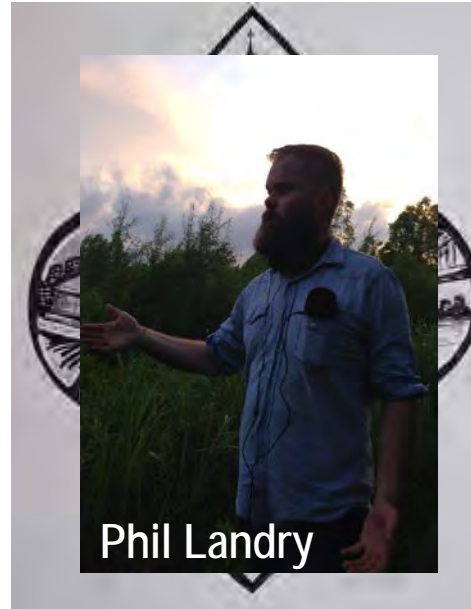

Bamboula/NOLA is:

- 12 local and international sound artists installing their work in public spaces on campus
- Sounds of Louisiana Digital Collection!
- Library-hosted workshop on preservation of born-digital art works, open to the local community
- Revised course syllabus to include contributions to and use of other digitized special collections material in composition assignment
- May Books!
- Round table 1 – what is sound art?
- Round table 2 – From Gottschalk to Grill, the development of music in New Orleans
- Throughout, May artists will be documenting the installations and events with the promise of producing a publication of Bamboula/NOLA.

Lisa Hooper

Phil Landry

TULANE UNIVERSITY DIGITAL LIBRARY

Jeff Rubin

Music at the Mint
POWERED BY THE LOUISIANA MUSEUM FOUNDATION

Newcomb Department
Music of

Rick Snow

Student
Student
Student
Student
Student
Student

Communications & Marketing

Alumni
Local news channels
Tulane news

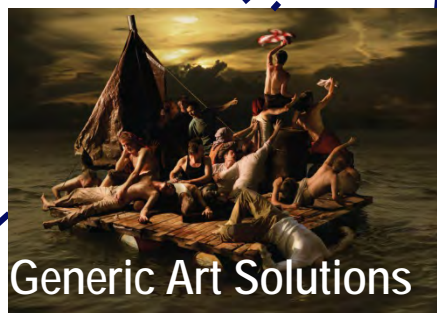

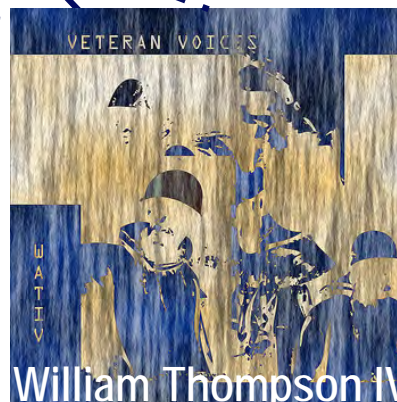

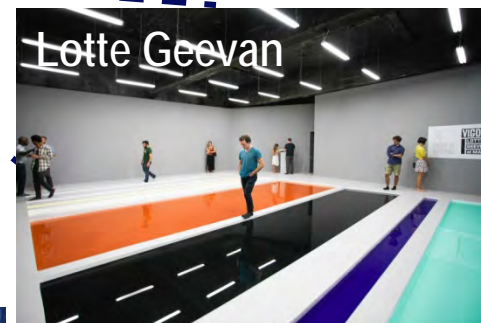

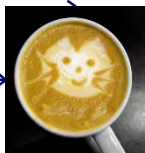

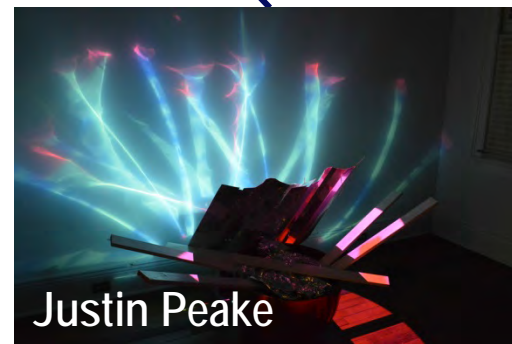

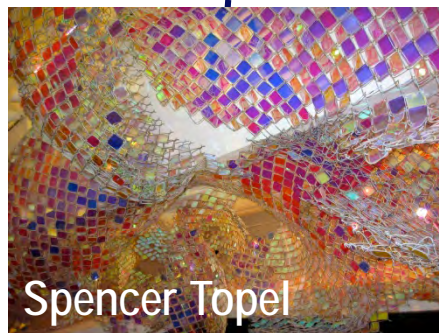

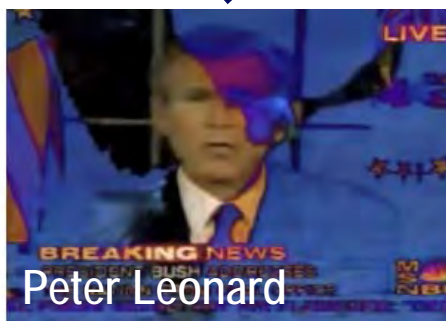

Music at the Mint
POWERED BY THE LUCIANA VESTER FOUNDATION

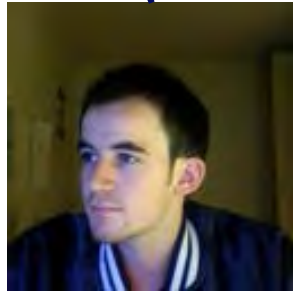

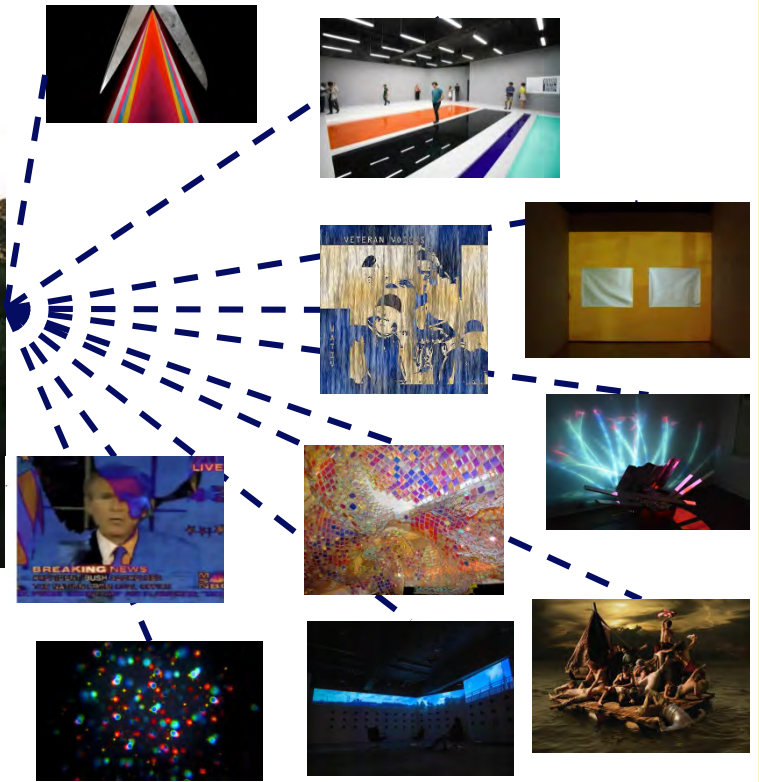

Communications
& Marketing

William Thompson IV

May

May books

Sounds of Louisiana

An open access community sound repository in the Tulane University Digital Library

